

Commitment of FAPs

The Partner Agencies of the Festival agree to the following conditions to assure the traveler the best service on their trip to Mali and most particularly to the Sahara:

- To be covered by Malian Civil Liability Insurance
- To respect the norms of vehicle security in assigning seats in vehicles: some 4X4 vehicles in Mali are equipped for 4 passengers and others for 5 to 6 passengers. We will respect the number of seats in the different types of vehicles to guarantee the passengers maximum comfort and safety.
- To travel in a 2 vehicle minimum convoy on long stretches of roadway and in desert regions.
- To provide that vehicles are driven by expedition leaders with a high level of knowledge of the particular region and with a basic understanding of vehicle mechanics.
- To provide satellite telephones in convoy vehicles to be able to contact the base in case of emergency.
- To equip vehicles with basic spare parts in case of breakdown.

We consider the above cited conditions indispensable to assure client comfort and security. To permit us to hold to these commitments, the Partner Agencies of the Festival reserve the right to:

- Modify or change the itinerary detailed at sale and purchase by the travelers due to weather, natural disaster and/or any other cause of Force Majeure. Any changes will be decided in consultation with the clients and without fundamental modification of the original itinerary.
