

Touareg Tours

Discover with us the AUTHENTIC MALI
We design tours tailorised to fit your wishes

Touareg Tours's origins are in the north Mali, the Agency is born and grew with the Desert Festival and very proud of being at the Festival's origins. The Agency is today based also in Bamako and the tour agency run today by a Luxembourg-Malian couple with over ten-year professional experience in organising tailorised tours for single and group travel, both large and small in size. We consider the way you travel as an art and life philosophy that will translate into an unforgettable experience for you.

Our particular strengths are:

- Customer-designed travel
- Personal advice
- Professionalism
- Responsible and equitable tourism

Our basic tours through Mali include:

- Comfort travel
- Discovery tours
- Sports and adventure tours
- Thematic and cultural tours
- Tours with special interests can be arranged like music festivals, wedding holidays, multi-country-tours, development project visits and many more

Our individual customers are mainly private groups from European countries like Belgium, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Russia, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, Scandinavian countries and others.

Our corporate customers include European tour operators. We also have an established experience in organising special packages for business related travel.

Our approach is to listen to your wishes and expectations for a successful holiday. Backed by a professional team we consult with you to establish a customized tour along your required level of comfort and special wishes.

Touareg Tours

Our team includes Malians and Europeans who manage and organise tours. It includes Malian tour guides who speak fluently French, the local language and the language required by our customers like English, German or other languages. Our careful drivers, specialized local guides and cooks originate from the regions you visit.

Our professional team works with a customer-oriented approach and is trained to make you discover the beauty and diversity of Mali in full respect of the populations, the animals and the environment.

Our concern for the local population is inclusive and participative; we work together with villages and local communities in a responsible and sustainable way. Financial benefits are direct and immediate to the people of the regions you visit.

Touareg Tours is particularly proud of its many satisfied customers and the positive feedback it gets. We are also proud for having worked with the BBC, the United Nations and the German TV channel VOX tours.
